

Anchorage, Alaska
February 15, 1947

Colonel J. P. Johnson
General Manager

Subject: A.R.R. Rotary Snow Plows Nos. 2 and 3.

Flow No. 2 was built by the Cooke Locomotive Company in 1900 and purchased second hand by The Alaska Railroad from the Colorado Midland Railroad in 1919. Purchase price was $37,328.80. Maintenance and repairs for the period October, 1933 through December, 1946 was $38,001.62. This equipment works on saturated steam at low pressures.

Flow No. 3 was purchased new by The Alaska Railroad from The American Locomotive Company in 1930. Purchase price was $64,809.06. Maintenance and repairs for the same period as above was $45,721.17.

M. T. HUGHES,
Master Mechanic.

KH:mjs

*Filed 10/6/50 R77
Pres. Lull by C. D. B.*